

Article rank | 14 May 2011 | Oman Daily Observer

Campaigners say baby milk co

GENEVA — The world's leading baby milk companies still flout a global code on its anniversary of its adoption.

Nestle and Danone, respectively the number one and number two baby milk di latest biennial report.

"Breaking the Rules, Stretching the Rules 2010" accuses 11 major companies o products can improve a child's well-being.

"The biggest problem now is the use of claims," said Annelies Allain, a director IBFAN said it would keep up the pressure on Swissbased Nestle with an ongoing

"... in response to this report, Danone has said actions it will put in place will a for IBFAN, told a Geneva news briefing.

He said Nestle had said it would address four out of 134 allegations of a breach

Danone did not wish to comment on the allegations that it was in breach of the

A Nestle spokesman disagreed with IBFAN's interpretation of the International

"Obviously, we take these allegations very seriously as we take any allegations

Printed and distributed by NewspaperDirect | www.newspaperdirect.com, US/Can: 1.877.980.4040, Intern: 800.63